

WE MAKE A RECIPE!

Objectives

- Know structures and verbal formulas needed to explain rules and instructions.
- Develop reading comprehension strategies to understand different types of texts.
- Increase vocabulary by working with the semantic field of cooking.
- Identify nouns and verbs.
- Know and apply writing techniques necessary to write a recipe.
- Find and organize information for oral and written explanation.
- Identify proportional amounts.
- Reduce to unity.
- Multiply a number by a fraction.
- Choose the appropriate unit for expressing a measure.
- Use the units of different sizes and their transformation to solve problems.

Competences

- Linguistic competence.
- Mathematical competence.
- Data processing and digital competence.
- Cultural and artistic competence.
- Autonomy and personal initiative.

Contents

- The recipe.
- Reading comprehension of a text.
- Semantic field of cooking.
- The noun and the verb.
- Using spoken language to explain information.
- Measure units.
- Proportion.

Assessment criteria

- Know structures and verbal formulas needed to explain rules and instructions.
- Develop reading comprehension strategies to understand different types of texts.
- Increase vocabulary by working with the semantic field of cooking.
- Identify nouns and verbs.
- Know and apply writing techniques necessary to write a recipe.
- Find and organize information for oral and written explanation.
- Identify proportional amounts.
- Reduce to unity.
- Multiply a number by a fraction.
- Choose the appropriate unit for expressing a measure.
- Use the units of different sizes and their transformation to solve problems.