

EDUCATION
RESEARCH
WITH PLYMOUTH
UNIVERSITY

CPI O Cruce

Towards the development of deeper learning and transferable lifelong skills through the use of European Key Competencies - KEY

Santiago de Compostela, Galicia, Spain 17 /6/2013

DRAFT PROGRAMME- Regio Conference

Venue: Fonseca USC-Salón Noble (old City)

09.30: Welcome and opening Conference. Emplacement: Fonseca USC-Salón Noble (Rectoral Building)

09.45 - Introduction- Luz Ares

10.00 - The Challenges for a Knowledge-based Profession: how can we empower teachers with the latest educational research?" Professor Linda la Velle, School of Education, Plymouth University.

10.40 - "Thinking about Lifelong Learning: child and adult perspectives"- Janet Georgeson University of Plymouth researcher

11.10 - Coffee Break

11.40 - Increasing learning Power- William Houldsworth Devon Adviser

- Implementeing foereign languages learning- Luz Ares Adviser for European projects

12:40 - Outcomes in project - St. Andrew's C.E. (Aided) Primary School- Plymouth , St Andrews CE (VA) Primary School – Manachorum and CPI O Cruce- Cerceda

14:00 - Closing the conference – Blanca Fraga Adviser for European projects
Lunch

