

The Strange Case of Codex Calixtinus

Introduction

The Codex Calixtinus has been stolen from the Cathedral of Santiago.

You are a detective, taking in account some evidences, find out where the Codex is.

As detective solve the case .

Build your theory about how the Calixtinus Codex has been stolen

Explain why is so important to find this Codex.

Evidences

Camera 1: we see an old man taking something under his coat.

Camera 2 : The old man is talking to a beautiful blond young lady.

Camera 3: We can see the young lady holding a big bag and the old man is now with the hands in the coat pockets.

A train ticket to Madrid is found in the place where our two people met. It has an address on it.

One day later in a newspaper appears and advertisement to make work interviews to get a job in Paris, the interviews will take place in the train ticket address.