

Exploring innovative and creative ways of teaching using new tools and methods

ETM

Title of the product:	The Road to Santiago
Proposing teacher(s)	Juan Gordillo, Milagros Trigo
Country	Spain
Language:	English
Type of material (Webquest, lesson plan...)	Webquest,
Concise Description of the content:	Students solve Maths problems, study romanesque Art... through the study of the Road to Santiago
Educational aims:	a) To catch the main point in short clear and simple messages/ to read simple texts and find the specific information. b) To use phrases and sentences to make a presentation about the theme. c) To learn about the Romanesque style d) To solve Maths problems d) To raise the awareness on the importance of acquisition new technologies in education to improve students' opportunities for further education. e) To get a better knowledge in other subjects through foreign languages (CLIL Project)
School level and grade:	4 th year Secondary
Topic(s) addressed:	Foreing languages, Art, Maths...
Methodology	Learning by doing
Time required:	3 weeks or more
Technological tools used for the product realization:	Front Page, Power point,
Software necessary for its fruition:	Microfoft suite
Considerations at the end of the experience:	Students implement language skills in foreign languages and get knowledge about Art, Maths...
Further considerations, if any:	