

Exploring innovative and creative ways of teaching using new tools and methods

ETM

Title of the product:	Probability calculus
Proposing teacher(s)	Mirarchi Pasqualina
Country	Italy
Language:	English
Type of material (Webquest, lesson plan...)	Interactive lesson
Concise Description of the content:	This product consist in a labyrinth that the students have to resolve to arrive at the exercise part. In that resolution, they learn the principal concepts of probability calculus.
Educational aims:	Mathematics and scientifics
School level and grade:	High school
Topic(s) addressed:	Probability, calculus, test, event
Methodology	Problem solving/ top down methods/learn to learn
Time required:	Twenty/thirty minutes
Technological tools used for the product realization:	computer
Software necessary for its fruition:	Power point/ jclick
Considerations at the end of the experience:	The experience has been much interesting so to the using by students and so to her composition. This product has been used by student of third and fourth class of my school and the mathematic teachers have been much positive opinions about it.
Further considerations, if any:	none