Unit 1 Writing practice

Word order

	Rewrite the sentences with the bold words. Helen turns up late. (always) Helen always turns up late. 1 She is afraid of fireworks. (usually)		3	Read the letter and correct the sentences. There is a grammar, vocabulary or spelling error in each sentence.
				Dear Carmen, your Thanks for you letter. (1) Is good to hear your
	2	We love going to a restaurant. (Chinese)		news. (2) I'm glad you have a good time in London. (3) Everything are fine here in Málaga. (4) I'm enjoying my new language school very well. (5) It is a building beautiful near the sea. (6) We have got a realy friendly English teacher. (7) His name is Mrs Redman. (8) I think my English gets much better now. (9) Well, Carmen, I must go now because I've
	3	I have been to the USA. (never)
	4	We go to Sevilla for the Easter Fair. (often)
	5	Have you opened your presents? (yet)		got a lot of homeworks to do. (10) Also, I haven't had dinner already. (11) By the way, when are
	6	She has had her birthday. (already)		you comeing home? (12) We're wanting to see you again! Love Paloma
	7	We visit my grandmother on a Sunday afternoon. (sometimes)	4	Write the text as an informal letter. Think about the layout and the punctuation.
	8	I have never liked octopus. (much)		56georgestreetoxford12thfebruarydearsallyhowareyouim fineijustwantedtothankyouformybirthdaypresentthecdis brilliantandilistentoitallthetimeitwouldbegreattoseeyou nexttimeyoureinoxfordwritesoonloveliz
An	ı ir	nformal letter
2	Ma	atch 1–8 with A–H to form complete sentences.
	1	Dear F A to hear from you.
	2	Write B soon.
	3	It was great to C so long to reply.
	4	Thanks for D visit us next time?
	5	It was really nice E see you last week. Lots F esús,
	7	Lots F Jesús, Sorry I've taken G of love,
	ı	Joiny I ve Lakell U OI 10Ve,

Error correction