

Kein schöner Land - No nicer country

The song is about finishing the working day .People look on their country after hard but successful working day. They meet and enjoy the leisure after hard work in the first verse . In the second they talk about meeting, sitting together and singing.. The last verse is dedicated to God. He is watching you and taking care of you day and night.

The song is very popular and if singers meet in any context from different background, professions,areas they unite singing the song. Single word are symbolic like the Oak, a typical German tree, as a meeting place.
